17th INSPIRING TEACHER OF ENGLISH AWARD:
EIGHT TEACHERS LAUDED FOR INSPIRING A LOVE FOR ENGLISH

1 October 2024 – Eight educators received the Inspiring Teacher of English Award (ITEA) this year. The award ceremony was graced by Guest-of-Honour Ms Gan Siow Huang, Minister of State for Education and Manpower, who presented the Inspiring Teacher of English Award (ITEA) to the recipients.

2. Out of 127 nominations received this year, five recipients were awarded the Teaching Award for excellence in the teaching of English, while three recipients received the Leadership Award for leading the development and implementation of effective English programmes in their schools.
3. During the ceremony, Ms Gan encouraged teachers to continue exploring innovative and meaningful approaches to build a strong English language foundation in students, so that they may develop the confidence and competence to use the language affectively, effectively, and impactfully.
4. Mr Jason Leow, Chairman of the Speak Good English Movement, said, “Every teacher has something in common. Beyond imparting the technicalities of the English language, they are instrumental in promoting and creating conducive environments for the usage and practice of standard English, and provide our students with the grammar and vocabulary to express their thoughts and emotions, allowing them to become better communicators in different contexts.”
5. The eight recipients each received a trophy, a certificate, and a cash award of $2,000. All winners and nominees will also receive a two-year membership to the Singapore Association for Applied Linguistics. For the full list of winners and award categories under ITEA, please refer to the Annex. Now into its 17th year since its inception in 2008, the ITEA has recognised the exemplary contributions of 143 English teachers in Singapore.

About the Inspiring Teacher of English Award

The Inspiring Teacher of English Award acknowledges educators who have been instrumental in igniting a love for the English language and are effective in helping their students speak and write better. These teachers are passionate about making English interesting and relevant, and are innovative in engaging their students in the language learning process. The Award salutes these teachers for their constant efforts to improve themselves in order that their students and schools can benefit.

Presented by the Speak Good English Movement and The Straits Times, with support from the Ministry of Education, the award has recognised a total of 143 Inspiring Teacher of English awardees (as of 2024) since its inception in 2008.

About the Speak Good English Movement

Launched in 2000, the Speak Good English Movement encourages Singaporeans to speak grammatically correct English that is universally understood, with the help of partners who run interesting programmes and develop learning content for the Movement. About the Ministry of Education

The Ministry of Education (MOE) formulates and implements education policies on education structure, curriculum, pedagogy, and assessment. It oversees the management and development of Government-funded schools, and the Institute of Technical Education, polytechnics and universities. More information on the MOE can be found at www.moe.gov.sg.

About The Straits Times

The Straits Times, the English-language flagship daily of SPH Media Trust, is the most-read newspaper in Singapore and is followed widely in the region for its comprehensive multimedia coverage of local, regional and world news, provided by its correspondents in 11 bureaus in major cities worldwide.

Launched on July 15, 1845, The Straits Times has been moving with the times in its efforts to engage and grow its audience and explore innovative ways of storytelling, as well as continuously refresh its products to maintain quality and stay relevant to the changing needs of its readers. Its integrated newsroom operates round-the-clock, providing content as it happens on all platforms, from its website at www.straitstimes.com, and Apple and Android apps to social media.

The Straits Times is a member of the Asia News Network, and has won multiple international media awards, including from the Society of Publishers in Asia, the World

Association of Newspapers and News Publishers (Wan-lfra), the Pacific Area Newspaper Publishers' Association (Panpa), and Society of News Design.

Its multimedia newsroom and innovative projects were recognised at regional and global awards. The Straits Times was among the biggest winners at the 2022 Digital Media Awards Asia presented by Wan-lfra, taking home two gold awards - for a visual story on public housing and a podcast series on South-east Asia's unsolved mysteries - and two silver awards.

On the international front, it won 51 awards – its best showing to date – at the Best of News Design Creative Competition announced by the United States-based Society for News Design in 2023. The record haul included a coveted gold award for a visual storytelling project on sustainability in the fashion industry.

The Straits Times also won several awards at the INMA Global Media Awards in 2023, including the best in Asia-Pacific prize for a World Cup 2022 interactive special.
